

DESCRIPTION

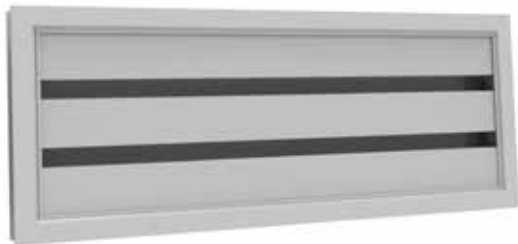

The DGL light proof door grille is designed for use in darkrooms where a free passage of air without light penetration is desired.

CONSTRUCTION

The DGL is manufactured from aluminium alloy extrusion frames and channel section cores, that are inner and overlapped forming an airway that minimises light penetration.

Units are supplied in a flange frame with a matching rear flange.

Standard colour finish is silver (other finishes available upon request).

SECTION VIEWS

